

Public Relations & Marketing

PRESS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE 02 Jan 2010

BIG TOP VENUE LAUNCHES AT CATTERICK SUNDAY MARKET

A new music and entertainment venue has been launched at Catterick Sunday Market. Bands and entertainers of all descriptions will entertain market visitors at the new Big Top which is now a permanent fixture at the market.

The Big Top is an original circus-style Big Top and has a capacity of 400. It is fully heated and features it's own unique bar – the Sneaky Pint which is a converted Hoop-La stall selling Yorkshire beer and German lager.

Every Sunday, bands and entertainment will take place in the Big Top from 12pm, providing not only unique entertainment but also a cosy, warm refuge from any bad weather!

The first act of the 2010 programme is on Sunday January 10th from 12:00 when popular local band the Blind Boys of Richmond who will get your feet moving with some fantastic Blues & Rock 'n' Roll (www.blindboys.co.uk). Acts featuring on the next 3 Sundays in January are My Lost Youth (a young band playing Emo Rock – (www.myspace.com/mylostryouthmusic) on January 17th, Steve Wade playing an acoustic set on January 24th and the great Get Educated with their inimitable style of rock on Jan 31st (www.myspace.com/geteducatedban).

For any enquiries regarding the new Big Top venue or if you are a performer that would like to be considered then please email bands@cattericksundaymarket.co.uk or call 01748 812127.